Climbing and Mountaineering Guiding Services

Group Guide Service accounts are established for coordinators of AMGA/ACMG (or similarly trained) certified guide services to purchase company issued guide gear only. All company orders must be placed by phone or fax by one coordinator.

Four orders a year are allowed and these orders must represent a group coordinated look and may not be assorted items for various guides of your company. Coordinators may order essential gear such as client rentals. No drop shipping is allowed; all orders must go to company headquarters.

To apply: Please complete an on-line application. Print, fill out and sign the application and mail it in with your supporting documentation, including:

- Company brochure
- List of guides for current year
- Website address and proof of insurance.

All this is required for consideration of your application. Guide Service accounts must be renewed annually by completing a new application and submitting a current guide list.

This offer is for group accounts only and may not be offered in certain regions of the country.

Please print, fill out, and sign an application from www.patagoniapro.com and mail it in with your supporting documentation to:

River or Sea Kayak Guide Service

Group River or Sea Kayaking Guide Service accounts are established for coordinators of services to purchase company issued guide gear only. All company orders must be placed by one coordinator.

All operations must provide a brochure detailing their business as well as any other supporting information including, but not limited to:

- Business structure
- Guiding regions & services offered
- A list of current full-time guides
- Proof of company liability insurance.

Uniform orders are encouraged and these orders must represent either a group coordinated look or a coordinated supply order for essential gear such as client rentals, PFDs, etc.

Working guides may place up to two personal orders a year during working season, limited to job-related gear (at the discretion of Patagonia) and only through the designated equipment manager. NO orders will be accepted in late summer (or any time for that matter) for snowsports apparel. Orders must ship to company headquarters; no drop shipping allowed.

This offer is for group accounts only and may not be offered in certain regions of the country. Accounts must be renewed annually by completing a new application.

Summer Camps

Summer camps do not qualify for official Pro Accounts with Patagonia; however, discounts on select and limited merchandise are available to camp directors and employees through our annual Summer Camp offering. To be considered for this program, please submit a completed application form, with "SUMMER CAMP" written prominently across the top of the page and envelope. Also supply a camp brochure and history of the camp. Applicant camps must follow these criteria:

- Camp programs must be at least 1 week in length and must include 6 of the following activities/courses:
 - Whitewater paddling
 - Rafting
 - Rock climbing (no climbing walls - real rock only, please)
 - Backpacking
 - Mountain biking
 - Horse packing/riding
 - Hiking
 - Trail running
 - Overnight Backpacking
 - Environmental Studies
 - Leave No Trace practices
 - Fly Fishing.

We request one contact person per camp and that one contact must be either the camp director or a senior supervisor.

Unfortunately, we cannot accept any applications from Boy Scout, Girl Scout or YMCA camps. This program may not be offered in certain regions of the country. Accounts must be renewed annually by completing a new application.

- Completed on-line application
- Current brochure or catalog detailing camp services, offerings and history
- Personal business card of the main contact only
