Chapter 6

“Native Hawaiians” Note: Here’s how Malia explained these terms to me. “Native Hawaiian” is often misused. It’s a legal term that means someone is more than 50 percent the DNA of Kanaka Maoli. “Hawaiian resident” is a loose term to refer to someone who lives in Hawaii. “Hawaiian subject” is someone who pledges allegiance to the Kingdom of Hawaii. “Kanaka Maoli” is someone of the Hawaiian race—indigenous Hawaiian.
